

Brian Savela

Operations Manager: Gregg Drilling & Testing, Inc.

Education:

Michigan Technology University
A.S. Electrical Engineering Technology

Related Experience:

Mr. Savela has extensive experience in environmental and geotechnical soils investigations. Mr. Savela is experienced in all phases of field operations, data QA/QC, and data acquisition system maintenance. He also oversees development and procurement of CPT and related support equipment..

Gregg Drilling & Testing, Inc., Signal Hill, CA, 1998 to present.

As Operations Manager, Mr. Savela supervises both environmental and geotechnical investigations, covering all aspects of CPT and direct push technology. He is also responsible for the extensive training of technicians. Other duties include Quality Assurance & Quality Control, Health & Safety Programs and Vehicle Inspections & Maintenance programs for Gregg In Situ.

Gregg Drilling & Testing, Inc., Signal Hill, CA, 1994 to 1998.

As CPT Operator, Mr. Savela oversees daily operation of field projects for environmental and geotechnical site investigations. Duties include using a variety of tools including seismic, CPT, UVIF, resistivity, Hydropunch, B.A.T. and soil sampling, piezometer installation and dilatometer.

Gregg Drilling & Testing, Inc., Signal Hill, CA, 1991 to 1994

Operated Hollow Stem Auger Rigs. Duties include soil and groundwater sampling, well installation & development for both environmental & geotechnical site investigations.

Certifications and Associations:

- OSHA 29 CFR 1910.120 - 40 Hour & Supervisor Training
- Certified Fiber Optic Repair
- National Groundwater Association